

Further media consolidation will create more roadblocks to free expression not less. Freedom and profit are not always compatible. The public interest must prevail. Thank you.